Are you looking for a new opportunity to maximize your skills and help others? Working for an Allstate Exclusive Agent is your answer! This is not your typical sales job.

Allstate agencies strive to provide excellent service to customers by assisting them with their insurance and financial services needs. Insurance Sales Producer opportunities are for true sales and customer-oriented individuals. In an agency staff position you will have the opportunity to work individually and focus on providing insurance and financial products to help customers protect their homes, cars, lives and retirement incomes.

Duties may include:

- Relationship building
- Providing excellent customer service by processing payments & reporting claims
- Conducting needs-based policy reviews and updating policies
- Cross-selling existing customers with other products
- Prospecting and generating new business through leads & referrals
- Generating quotes
- Conducting policy reviews & updating policies

Requirements:

- Excellent Communication/Interpersonal Skills
- Confident, self-starter who works well independently
- Must have ability to multi-task
